EAST BAY

COMPASSION IN ACTION. COMMITMENT TO ALL.

ANNUAL REPORT

JULY 1, 2020 – JUNE 30, 2021

Dear Friends,

As the COVID-19 pandemic entered its second year, covering our fiscal year that ran from July 1, 2020 to June 30, 2021, economic hardships in our community deepened and emotional support networks grew even more necessary. Through challenging times, JFCS East Bay is proud to have continued serving our community with support and care. In partnership with thousands of donors and volunteers, we provided financial and emotional support for families experiencing food and housing insecurity, legal services for immigrants and refugees, and assistance for homebound seniors and Holocaust survivors. Although the headlines presented an uncertain backdrop, our commitment to our community and the quality of our services remained undiminished.

Our initial COVID-19 response, which included rent and utilities assistance, grocery and supply deliveries, and expanded virtual connection opportunities, expanded into a suite of comprehensive services to meet our community's needs. One example is Café Europa, which evolved from a monthly gathering for Holocaust survivors in-person to a weekly, well-attended virtual gathering. For many of the older adults in this program who were at heightened risk of illness and could not socialize outside, this provided an essential connection to their social network. It has continued to thrive in weekly form through the present.

As children, families, and schools adjusted to a virtual-learning school year, JFCS East Bay was there both virtually and in-person with logistical and emotional support. Our Parenting and Youth programs helped nearly 3,000 young children and their families with counseling. We also distributed over 1.5 million dollars to households impacted by the pandemic and economic shutdowns.

During this period, immigration tensions reached a boiling point as then-President Trump enacted harsh border policies affecting refugee families and children. JFCS East Bay met the challenge by resettling 61 refugee arrivals. Just after the year closed, we began to welcome waves of new arrivals from Afghanistan, evacuated after the withdrawal of the U.S. military and subsequent collapse of the Afghan government. We have resettled over 500 refugees since August.

The fiscal year also covered some major internal changes for JFCS East Bay. Former Executive Director Avi Rose retired in December after 15 years of service, and we welcomed Chief Executive Officer Robin Mencher. After three years of service as president of our board of directors, Katherine Haynes concluded her successful tenure, leaving us in a place of strength. In light of racial reckoning across the country and by request of our own staff, JFCS East Bay launched a Racial Justice Advisory Team and commissioned an assessment of our agency's health through a racial equity lens. We also redesigned many components of our systems and infrastructure to meet clients' needs and keep staff and clients safe during the pandemic. Through these new initiatives, we continue to adapt to meet the demands of supporting our staff and clients during these unprecedented times.

Wishing you and your family health and safety,

Robin Mencher
